Purpose of meeting

Headphones

Adam and Zafran were asked if they had completed their task from last week's meeting which was to test the headphones that Mr Pugh had purchased. They reported that they had indeed tested the headphones and were asked to share their findings with the other members of the school council. Firstly they were asked about the sound quality, Adam stated that there was no problem at all with the sound and they were "good". The problem that they had with the headphones was the fit of them, they fit Adams head but were too small for Zafrans and they could not be adjusted. They tried to wear the headphones with the strap around the back of their heads instead of on top of it but apparently this way was "annoying" as they kept slipping down.

Following the feedback from Adam and Zafran all members of the council decided that the headphones they had tested were not going to be suitable for use and it would be a waste of money to purchase anymore. Members were asked if anyone had researched any other options, they hadn't but luckily I had! I presented the group with a printed version of four sets of different headphones for us to look over to see if they would be suitable.

We ruled one set out immediately as the headband wasn't adjustable and it was thought that we may encounter the same issue as Adam and Zafran had with the ones they tested. As a group we talked through all of the features of the remaining headphones. Once all details had been discussed each member was asked to vote as to which they thought would be most suitable to purchase.

It was very close with only one vote deciding which headphones the students wanted school to purchase to be used to enhance their learning experiences. The winner was Sony MDR ZX310 (feel free to google them).

With that matter dealt with it was then asked which class would be bringing a matter to be discussed at next week's meeting. Meghan stated that the end of term disco that Miss Rolinson was organising could do with some more ideas. Each class was asked to discuss and feedback as to things that they would like to do during this event.

Meeting closed 2.54PM
