Pens Meadow

Pens Meadow is a special school which offers places for 65 pupils aged 3 – 16 at our Ridge Hill site and 40 pupils aged 16 – 19 at our Pensnett site. We provide a quality education for pupils with complex needs, severe learning difficulties, including autism, and pupils with profound and multiple learning difficulties.

A culture of safeguarding is embedded throughout the school. Our staff team work in partnership with families to deliver a personalised curriculum providing challenge, with support, to ensure all our pupils are prepared for the next stage of their school or adult life.

Headteacher welcome

My name is Marie Hunter and I am proud to be Headteacher of Pens Meadow School. I have taught in Special Schools for over twenty years and been Headteacher here since 2008. We are a community at Pens Meadow; every child and adult is a part of that community; once you join we ask that you commit to our values and enjoy being here; learning and developing together.

I lead by example, we are innovative, have a 'can do' approach, and enjoy the responsibility of achieving the best we can for all our pupils. If you are interested in joining us, as a family, child, volunteer or supporter, we would love to hear from you.

Why Choose Pens Meadow?

Pens Meadow is renowned for its family centred ethos and values. Over the years we have seen pupils surpass expectations and excel to become happy, confident learners who overcome challenges to succeed.

We now have two school sites. Our Ridge Hill building, although not new, offers a safe, secure, inviting environment in which the children thrive with the support of our excellent team of education and health staff, family outreach and care staff. We maintain the building to a high standard, frequently adapting spaces to meet the needs of the current pupils.

We also benefit from having three minibuses, which enable the pupils to take an active role outside the school buildings; going swimming, on community visits, being involved with pupils from other schools and practising skills learned in school such as communicating effectively in different environments.

At the Pensnett site, we have a newly re-furbished building and sports hall with extensive outside spaces. This provides opportunities for the students who transfer from the Ridge Hill site, and students joining us at 16 from other schools to work together in preparing for adult life. Having one school across two sites mean we can offer a wider range of resources and opportunities to ensure pupils' needs are met and outcomes are not compromised.

What we do

At Pens Meadow we believe the curriculum is more than English and Maths. We know communication, independence, knowledge and skills are essential components of learning, and these are all taught in lessons. However, we acknowledge that to be effective, the curriculum needs to ensure that every experience the pupils have with us, every day, is of value.

This requires a holistic approach, involving all adults and pupils in the school.

We are proud of our relationships with families; we work in partnership to develop trust so that when challenge and support are needed, it is done with respect. Our commitment to you is that, through working together, we will achieve the best outcomes for your child.

Curriculum

The curriculum at Pens Meadow places the child at the centre of the planning process. From Early Years through to Post 16 the emphasis is on providing all pupils with the skills and knowledge they need to be confident learners who are well prepared for the next stage of their school or adult life. Staff are highly effective in assessing pupils' abilities and needs and providing enjoyable and motivating learning experiences. Pupils have positive attitudes to learning. All pupils have individual targets in the four areas of the EHCP; Cognition and Learning, Communication and Social, Physical and Sensory and Social Emotional and Mental Health, as well as Maths and English. Pupils make outstanding progress towards achieving these.

Total Communication

Our belief as a school is that effective communication is the foundation of successful learning. Our curriculum is delivered within a Total Communication environment. This means we consistently provide opportunities for pupils to develop a meaningful and functional system of Total Communication using verbal and / or non-verbal communication. This may include speech, Makaton signing, PECS, use of photographs, pictures, symbols, schedules, Objects of Reference, on-body signing, communication passports, switch use and voice output communication aids or AAC equipment.

Support and Partnership

We are able to meet our pupils' need here at Pens Meadow thanks to the extremely effective partnerships we have with families and others. At Pens Meadow we ask that all young people and adults involved with our school support our mission vision and values. We strongly believe that working together can make a real difference for our young people. Building successful partnerships that ensure families feel they are valued is a core purpose of our school.

Complex Needs

All our pupils have complex needs which require effective team working to provide the best outcomes. Our education staff team is extremely well qualified and experienced in working with pupils with a range of needs. We have a team of nurses and health professionals, family support, and occupational therapist, all employed by school. We also work closely with speech and language therapists, physiotherapists, educational psychology, teachers for Hearing Impaired and Visually Impaired, sports coaches, musicians, dance teachers, connexions, social care and many other agencies.

Behaviour Support

Behaviour and Safety at Pens Meadow is outstanding. We have our own approach to behaviour support which is highly effective in supporting pupils to remain engaged with their learning. This is in partnership with families and in conjunction with a range of other support services such as social care, CAMHS, educational psychology and family support.

We have a team of Behaviour for Life and Learning (BfLL) Advocates Trainers in school who ensure all staff are confident and competent in supporting our pupils.

Family Outreach

Pens Meadow recognises that being a parent or carer of a child with learning difficulties presents challenges which can impact on the whole family. When families are well supported and equipped to overcome these challenges this can only have a positive impact on the children and their engagement at school. In recognition of this, Pens Meadow works employs our own family outreach team. Please look at the family outreach website for more information.

Home School Association

Pens Meadow Home School Association (HSA) is a registered charity which has the intention of raising funds for the benefit of all pupils attending Pens Meadow School. All parents and families are invited to be members of the HSA and are asked to support our events.

Parent Views

'Going to school was a scary prospect. My son was three years old. On our first visit it felt like we'd come home.'

'We almost feel like a family. Support is always available if you have any worries, nothing is too much trouble'

'Pens Meadow School has given my son the opportunity to be himself. I like the daily diary, this helps me know my son's daily activities and progress.'

'I love the day to day communication I have with staff about my daughter's well-being during the day.'

'A truly welcoming place. Exactly the right environment for my son. It takes the 'whole child' into account and he is thriving there.'

'All the staff are very welcoming and friendly around the school. Everyone knows my child which I love. It's like one big family.'

'I really love Pens Meadow School. When I visit, the head and staff are really nice and welcoming to parents. It has a really calm and homely atmosphere. My son is enjoying his lessons and the learning and personal care is outstanding.'

Mission

We aim to work in partnership with all our stakeholders to create an environment where young people with complex needs are supported to achieve their full potential in school and in their adult life. We will enable our young people to be active participants in school, at home and in the wider community.

Vision

Our success will be demonstrated by the results of our LIVING, GROWING, LEARNING ethos that relates to all young people and adults, which is defined as,

Values

Integrity

- Work in an open, honest and constructive way
- Value and support each other
- Our values will not be compromised

Respect

- Behave appropriately
- Treat everyone fairly
- Show consideration for others

Living

Our encouragement will stimulate full engagement in school life. We will ensure that effective partnership working with all stakeholders will help us to achieve our goals.

Growing

We will develop confident and valued members of our community. Our pastoral care, guidance and support will be recognised as outstanding.

Learning

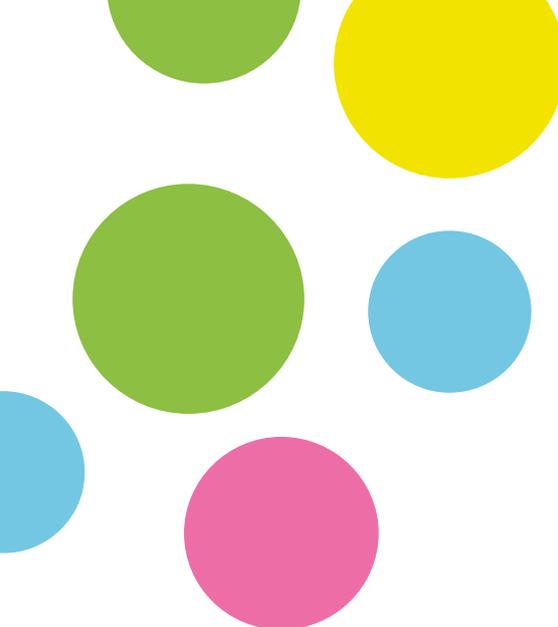

We will deliver a personalised curriculum for all our learners within a total communication environment. All our young people and adults will have high expectations for themselves and others.

Commitment

- Be accountable
- Take responsibility for our actions
- Have enthusiasm and positivity

Working Collaboratively

- Learn from each other
- Communicate effectively
- Collectively set and achieve high standards

Attendance and Absence

Good attendance is essential if pupils are to gain the maximum benefit from their time at school. If your child is absent, please phone the school after 8.00am to explain the absence. If no message is received, the office staff will phone you to establish the reason for absence. We are not able to authorise absence for family holidays. If you need to request leave of absence for exceptional circumstances, please contact the school office.

Raising Concerns and Resolving Complaints

From time to time parents, and others connected with the school, will become aware of matters which cause them concern. To encourage resolution of such situations the governing Body has adopted a 'School Complaints Procedure'.

The procedure is devised with the intention that it will:

- Usually be possible to resolve problems by informal means
- Be simple to use and understand
- Be non-adversarial
- Provide confidentiality
- Allow problems to be handled swiftly through the correct procedure
- Address all the points at issue
- Inform future practice so the problem is unlikely to recur

Full details of the procedure may be obtained from the School Office or from the Clerk to the Governing Body, Mrs D Hill.
